

RETREAT NEAR TOULOUSE (South-West of France)

OCTOBER 5-8, 2018

THE PLACE:

La Source Bleue in Touzac is nestled in the valley of the river Lot, about 150 kms from Toulouse. The ancient stone buildings, converted into houses, used to be water mills that date back to the eleventh century. The blue spring whose atmosphere is tranquil and serene, flows to the river across the garden and the houses are in enchanting, magical surroundings bordered by a forest of giant bamboo on the riverside.

It is here that over the past 20 years, there have been spiritual gatherings with speakers from different traditions.

There is a large swimming pool and badminton
